

Counselor's Corner – ACT Reminder – Jan 25, 2017

Greetings students!

This is a friendly reminder that you will be taking the ACT at Millennium on February 28th for FREE. This is part of the required North Carolina testing regimen, and a good score can help you get into your college of choice!

As many of you are already doing, please consider preparing with a book or using online resources:

ALSO, here is a free online practice test that you can take courtesy of the folks at the ACT. Just download the "TestNav" program to your compatible device, click on "ACT," and then click "Practice Tests," and you are good to go!
